CHOICE BARGAINS!

Some Fine Offers in Farm Lands And Town Lots.

278 acres, 5 miles south of town, in the finest neighborhood in the county, a large two-story house, 2 large barns, 2 tobacco barns, 1 hayshed, wagon shed, cow house, granary, buggy house, ice house, 3 good cabins, meat house, hen houses, etc. Well watered, and has splendid crops of orchard grass, clover, timothy and wheat growing on it. An ideal stock and grain farm, and a money maker.

505 acres, 10 miles south of town, on the Clarksville pike, and close to R. R. station on the I. C. road, near school house, and with all modern improvements. This is as fine a body of land as you can find anywhere, and produces large quantities of wheat, corn, hay and tobacco. Has 40 to 50 acres fine timber, 4 tobacco barns, 1 large stock barn, 1 hay shed, 8 cabins, windmill and tank, and all improvements necessary to a first class farm. If you are looking for something extra at a bargain don't fail to see this place.

222 acres, 2 miles south of Garretttsburg—100 acres of this is in timber, containing a lot of red and white oak and poplar, 2-story brick dwelling, 2 tobacco barns, 1 stable, 4 cabins, and other necessary improvements. This place is offered at a real bargain.

200 acres, near Pembroke, rich land and well improved. Runs right up to within 1/2 mile of the best little town on earth.

211 acres, 5 miles south of town, improvements good, and everything in good shape. An opportunity you cannot afford to miss.

309 acres near Bell, Ky. This is a well improved farm, and just what you are looking for. Splendid dwelling, good stable and large tobacco barns and all other out buildings. 40 acres good timber, balance in a high state of cultivation.

18 acres just outside the corporate limits of Hopkinsville, splendid house and all necessary out buildings. Just the very best place you know of to raise chickens and run a garden and fruit farm 261 acres—only 2 miles from town on the Russellville pike. This farm can be bought cheap, and is an ideal location, and a highly productive place, with good improvements.

We have some very desirable homes for sale on the best residence streets in the city and at real bargain figures.

A right new modern cottage for sale or rent on 18th street, in the old Sharp addition.

Another one at a bargain on West 18th St. Also some desirable building lots in different parts of the city at ridiculously low prices.

Call and see us if you are interested in a good home, either in the city or country. Now is the time to buy good property at prices that appeal to your pocket-book.

If you are looking for a good established business, well located, we have got just what you are looking for, and at the right price.

The Toledo Blade has bolted
the Republican party and says hereafter it will be non-partisan.

The Indiana House passed the senate county unit bill Saturday and yesterday took up the night rider relief bill recommended by Gov. Hanly.

Geo. P. Rowell, the publisher of the newspaper directory, died not long ago at Poland Spring, Maine, aged 70 years.

The city-council of Bowling Green has passed an ordinance submitting to the people a bond issue of $15,000 as the beginning of a city sewerage system.

Indications are that this is to be the dirtiest presidential campaign in twelve years with personal charges flying through the air in lieu of great political issues.

Collector E. T. Franks spoke at Edyville Saturday, and his speech dealt largely with the night rider degradations. He spoke at Murray yesterday and will fill dates at Benton and Mayfield Wednesday and Thursday.

Betting odds in Indiana have slowly changed from 10 to 13 on Mac-shall to 9 to 10 on Watson. The Democrats are claiming the state beyond all doubt for Marshall for Governor and Bryan and Kern are also making a winning fight. Indiana is all right.

Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma, who was accused of being a tool of the Standard Oil Co., by Wm. R. Hearst, while denying his guilt promptly resigned as treasurer of the National Democratic committee, to remove the party of embarrassment. His successor is Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats-Zeitung.

Coming Wedding.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Susie May Boyd, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Boyd, of Elm Creek, Neb., to Mr. Eugene D.

Wednesday, October 7th.

Hitchcock Denies.

Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican National Committee, declines that other resignations may follow that of T. Coleman du Pont.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous services. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney, Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by Dr. J. C. Cheney.

Cry of the Lonely Woman.

To the woman who is a wife but has not known motherhood, to her who treads the path of life alone, and to the mother whose arms are bereft by the grim reaper of that which she has deemed most precious, there is a message in the experience of four foster-mothers as told in the August Delinquent.

There are millions of these women, millions of homes to which no child has ever come, millions who have remained unwed, who have alive within them the maternal love that yearns for its fulfillment. There are thousands of homes that death has left lonely, where the mother whose arms are empty mourns her loss.

Yet within their reach is happiness, happiness in the breadth and depth of life told in every line of these four stories.

"There is no life for a woman without children," says one foster mother. And contrasting the life of the woman whose days are empty and whose life is purposeless, who grows old and weary and fretful for the lack of something to fill out her existence, with the depth and sincerity and joy of these women who have adopted motherhood as a profession, it would seem that she is right.

Henry Smith Williams, M.D., LL.D. who in the October number of McClure's brings together the accumulated testimony of modern science to show that the regular use of alcohol, in any quantity whatever, depresses the mental activities, breaks down the physical structure, and impairs the vitality through several generations.

The October Smart Set.
The East Side of New York, with all its poverty and suffering, possesses a remarkable intellectual life, says Mabel Agnes Lorenz in the October Smart Set. In the cafes and tea-rooms of this section may be found the exiled brain and spirit of the whole Slav world, influencing silently but effectively tremendous changes in the political life of Southern Europe. In "Where Exiled Russia Eats" Miss Lorenz draws an attractive picture of a phase of life in the metropolis known to but few outside of its little periphery.

For twenty centuries we have delighted in holding up Xanthippe as the model scold of all the world. Katherine Smith makes a telling argument in behalf of this persecuted lady, holding her up to modern eyes as a long-suffering and devoted wife, whose neglectful spouse Socrates left her to run the household while he discoursed on the front porch on the beauties of the simple life. "In Defense of Xanthippe" is one of the cleverest features of this clever magazine.

In the Strand Magazine for October, Winston Spencer Churchill's narrative entitled "My African Journey" describes his expedition from the Victoria to the Albert Nyanza. In his "Reminiscences and Reflections," Sir John Hare, the eminent English actor, describes some highly interesting and amusing experiences during an American tour; of particular interest to all who take pleasure in the beautifying of their homes is an article describing and illustrating "English Homes and Gardens;" the color section contains a number of full page duotone photographs of "The World's Most Beautiful Women;" Harry Furness, the famous caricaturist, writes about and illustrates "The Comic Side of Crime;" Camille Flammarion, the eminent French astronomer, contributes a wonderful article entitled "Worlds; the Dust of the Infinite," in which he takes us with him through the immensity of celestial space; in "The Little Problems of Mr. Briggs" are presented some very curious and interesting problems which the author answers in a very masterly way; the fiction consists of an uproariously funny instalment of "Salthaven," by W. W. Jacobs; a serial story for children entitled "The House of Arden," by E. Nesbit, and six splendid short stories by popular authors. The number concludes with "Curiosities," a prominent and popular feature of the Strand.

A Strong And Well-Balanced Magazine.

One of the biggest celebrations of modern times will take place in Philadelphia during the week beginning October 4. It is to commemorate the 25th birthday of the birthplace of liberty on this continent. A full account of plans for the various pageants, exhibitions, athletic events, etc., will be found in the October Lippincott's, on sale September 21. The magazine also contains a strong complete novel and a fine array of short stories, special articles, and miscellany.

LOCAL OPTION WINS.

County Unit Law Passed By Indiana Legislature.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 27.—County unit is now a law in Indiana. The Legislature yesterday passed the option bill by a vote of 55 to 45. Five Democrats voted for it and four Republicans against it. Intense excitement prevailed while the vote was being taken. The temperance forces stormed the legislative halls and won the day. Gov. Hanley, it is said, will stump a county for a Democratic Representative who voted for the bill against the Republican nominee.

DEEP CRACKS FROM ECZEMA

Could Lay State-Pencil in One—Hands in Dreadful State—Disease Defied Remedies and Prescriptions—Suffered Seven Years.

FOUND A PERMANENT CURE IN CUTICURA

"I had eczema on my hands for about seven years and during that time I had used several so-called remedies, together with physicians' prescriptions. The disease was so bad on my hands that I could lay a state-pencil in one of the cracks and a rule placed across the hand would reach the pencil. I used—
—Skin Lotion
—Borax
—Others externally but I did not use any internal remedy, and while some gave partial relief, none relieved as much as did the first box of Cuticura Ointment. I made a purchase of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and my hands were perfectly cured after two boxes of Cuticura Ointment. I made a cake of soap were used. I now keep a box of Cuticura Soap and Ointment on hand for future use. I could write a great deal more in reference to my cure but do not want to take more of your time. William H. Dean, Newark Del., Mar. 28, 1907."

CHILD SUFFERED
With Sores on Legs. Cured in Two Weeks by Cuticura.
"My little daughter suffered with sores on her legs for some time. Her feet were sore, too, and she couldn't wear her shoes. I think she was poisoned by running through weeds but the doctor said it was eczema. I tried several remedies but failed to find a cure. Then I sent for Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her in two weeks. I find Cuticura the best I ever tried for any kind of sore and I hope I shall never be without it. Mrs. Gertrude Laughlin, Irydale, W. Va., Apr. 25, 1907."

Organize at Gracely.
On Friday afternoon of Sept. 25, in response to the call of the teachers, Misses Lurline Wadlington and Elizabeth Nance, the patrons of the Gracely district met at the school house and organized a School Improvement League.
The meeting was a most enthusiastic one and promises to bring much good to the school.
The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. B. W. Cowherd; vice-president, Mrs. C. S. Coleman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. T. Roberts.
The league will give its attention to beautifying the school house and grounds and to providing better sanitary conditions for the school.

We live by our blood, and on it we thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by. When strength is full and spirits high we are being refreshed—bone, muscle and brain, in body and mind—with continual flow of rich blood. This is health.
When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

HASKELL'S RESIGNATION

As Treasurer of the Democratic Committee.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Gov. Charles N. Haskell tonight resigned as treasurer of the Democratic National Committee. His resignation was announced by himself three hours after his arrival in Chicago, and after he had conferred with the officers of the national headquarters here.

After giving out his decision, Haskell, in response to a question, declaring that he did not desire to be responsible for any embarrassment which might result to the Democratic party by his retaining the office of treasurer.

That his resignation is the direct result of the charges made against him by Hearst and Roosevelt, Haskell admitted. At the same time he said that by his resignation intend to admit that any of the charges were true.

DUPONT ALSO QUILTS.
New York, Sept. 25.—It was announced tonight that T. Coleman Dupont, of Delaware, the head of the bureau of campaign speakers of the Republican National Committee, resigned. He said that he feels that the pendency of the suit by the government against the powder company, with which he is connected, might be employed by his opponents to the injury of the campaign.

DROWNS IN THE OHIO.

Miss Nina McCormick, of Henderson, Is Drowned.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 26.—Miss Nina McCormick, the 19-years-old daughter of Charles McCormick, a prominent farmer, met a tragic death by drowning in the Ohio River this afternoon. She, in company with a young girl friend, was spending the day at Lower Island. They were all in wading and stepped off the dam into deep water. She never came to the surface. Her body was recovered to-night. She was a talented musician and artist. Had spent two years in the Chicago Art Institute. Her untimely death cast a gloom over the entire city.

To those afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble, backache, rheumatism, Pains for the kidneys bring relief in the first dose. Hundreds of people today testify to their remarkable healing and tonic properties. 30 days' trial $1.00. They purify the blood. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

COL. HANBURY FOUND

And a Wild Hog Captured in Wilds of Trigg.

Cadiz, Ky., Sept. 25.—W. M. Puckett, living about seven miles southwest of here, captured a wild hog in his cornfield a few days ago. For a month or more something had been eating and tearing down his corn. A neighbor suggested that it was a wild-hog, and for him to go to the thickest briar patch in the field and he would find him burrowed down in the ground. Mr. Puckett found this large hog in its bed, which it had rooted out some two or three feet deep in the ground. Its tusks measured four and a half inches long, and every indication was that it was from 12 to 13 years old. It killed one of the dogs in the capture and wounded several of the others, and came very near getting one of the men.

Hon. Max Hanbury, after a disappearance of two weeks, was found today, bearing evidences of having recently emerged from a hole in the ground. Small particles of briar roots adhering to his clothes gave color to the theory that he too possibly have been hidden in a briar patch, but this report has not been confirmed.

Double Wedding.

A double wedding occurred in the city at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the contracting parties being Milton Cornelius to Miss Laura Bryant, and J. E. Cornelius to Miss Lena Guthrie. The ceremony was said by Rev. M. A. Jenkins at the residence of Mr. Walter Wood, Eleventh avenue, west. The young people live in the Bainbridge neighborhood and they

TO THE VOTERS.

TO THE VOTERS OF CHRISTIAN COUNTY:

Judge Prowse in a lengthy letter tries to justify his conduct in removing me from the office of sheriff of Christian county to which you had elected me for a term of four years, and in justification of myself and those who so generously elected me, I wish to answer same as far as it may seem necessary.

First, I will say that the court of appeals has never reviewed this case upon its merits, although four judges construed the law to mean that Judge Prowse had the legal power after the first day of March, either to remove me or to let me make my bonds and continue in office. Yet Prowse by quoting a small portion of this opinion tries to make the public believe that the court of appeals held that the statute removed me from office, while he knew good and well that the court of appeals did not hold in that opinion that anything removed me from office but his order made on March 11. If the statute had removed me from office on March 1st, 1908, there would have been no need of his removing me on March 11th, 1908.

As a matter of information for the voters I will state that in the month of December, 1905, I executed all three of my bonds, namely, an official bond, a revenue bond and a bond for the county levy with the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company as my surety. These bonds under the law were good for all four years of my term. On Jan. 1st, 1907, I executed three similar bonds or renewed all of them with the same surety. The Revenue Act of 1906, which had become a law, required my revenue bond to be executed by March 1st, and also required a quietus from the fiscal court. However, I was not ordered to settle in 1907 for the 1906 county taxes, until Oct., 1907. Judge Breathitt rightly construed the law and let me make my bonds without a quietus from the fiscal court. In Oct., 1907, I was ordered to settle up to Jan. 1st, 1908, for all county taxes received and paid out up to that date. In January I was asked by the county attorney not to prepare my settlement until the railroad taxes were paid which was not done until about the 17th of February. The fiscal court met on the 18th of February, 1908, and I told Judge Prowse that day that I was ready to settle and wanted a quietus so that I could make my bonds, and he promised to call the fiscal court's attention to it. This he denies but I am corroborated in my statement by two other gentlemen who were present in his office.

Later and about the 27th of Feb., 1908, I again went into his office, and said to him in substance, that I had to make my bonds by the first of March, and wanted a settlement with the fiscal court and asked him if the court had one anything about my settlement. He told me that Frank Rives had been appointed by the court to make the settlement. I told him that Frank Rives was in Frankfort, and I further asked him if he would let me make my bonds without a quietus and he told me that he could not let me make my bonds without a quietus, but if he failed to get the court together in time to give me a settlement and quietus by the first of March, that he would let me make my bonds when I did get a settlement and quietus. This is not only proven by three gentlemen who were present at the time and as is shown by the records of the court, but partly by Judge Prowse himself who declared on the 27th of March, after he had entered the order removing me, that no sheriff would ever renew his bonds, while he was county judge, without a quietus from the fiscal court.

Judge Prowse denies that this conversation, or any other like it, ever occurred, although my statements corroborated by three other gentlemen whose evidence is on record and who have no reason whatever to misstate the facts and whose evidence stands unimpeached and unimpeachable, and on this state of facts, I leave it to the public to decide as to which of us is correct about what occurred.

Judge Prowse further says that questions of vital importance to the tax payers of this county had more to do with the removal of me from office than anything else.

was removed all my bonds were in full force and effect, and there could be no possible chance of the tax-payers losing one cent by my remaining in office. He removed me and appointed Renshaw and accepted the same surety that was on my bond.

He also states that he did not remove me until he learned that the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company would not go on my bond, but certainly he does not mean to intimate that he would have let me make my bond on the 11th day of March, if I could have made good bonds that day, with said Guaranty Company as sureties, or with good personal bond, for with but a few hours' notice on that day I offered to make a bond with personal sureties worth more than $150,000.

I do not know whether "a certain Democratic politician" promised him that he would have no opposition if he would not remove me from office, but if he did he had no power to bind the people. However, if he had given me a fair deal, I am sure that he would not have had the widespread, determined opposition that he now has from the people regardless of parties, for I firmly believe that the majority of our people believe in every man having a fair deal, and that they will condemn his actions.

I was at all times able to settle with the county and pay over all that I owed it, on the 8th day of April, after I was removed, my settlement with the fiscal court was received and approved and I was given a full and complete quietus. There was then in my hands more than $21,000.00, and I was able to pay every cent of it, when called upon. Since then I made a final settlement with the fiscal court and gave my successor my check for every cent that I owed the county, which was paid in full.

That was not the real reason why he did not remove me until after I o'clock on March 11th, 1908. The fact for a certain Republican politician stated openly to a number of men that before Prowse made the order of removal on March 11th, 1908, he was approached and the office was offered to him for a certain sum of money or a portion of the proceeds of the office. I do not know whether the statement is true or false, but it has been repeatedly made by this prominent Republican politician and so far as I know it has never been denied.

It was as much his duty on any other day after March 1 as on March 11 and it may be that the real reason for the removal and on that particular day was that the proper arrangements had not been made up to that day and hour.

Perhaps the Democratic Mass Convention had heard that report, and possibly that is why those gentlemen denounced his actions as "arbitrary, oppressive and corrupt," but did not so characterize the action of the Court of Appeals. The office of sheriff, after I was removed, belonged to the people, and his Honor, Judge Prowse, held the appointment in his hands, by political accident, as a sacred trust.

As to his attack upon the Democratic members of the Fiscal Court for voting down his motion that a bi-partisan board be appointed to examine my books, I will say that so far as shielding me was concerned, I did not need and did not ask to be shielded. My books were then and have always been open to the inspection of the public as well as the county and State officials. Mr. Rives had been appointed a Commissioner to examine the settlement with me, and had examined my books carefully. I presume, however, the Democratic members of the Fiscal Court would have voted for his motion to put the county to the additional expense of having a so-called bi-partisan board to go over my books if they had believed that there was anything wrong in them. I do not believe they would do anything to shield me in wronging the county. But they probably believed that his Honor's motion was made to cast suspicion on me, whether there was anything wrong with my books or not. For, when the motion was made to appoint a bi-partisan board to examine the former sheriff's books as well as my own, they all voted for it. But even a Republican court did not vote for the motion that he originally made, and which he charges a Democratic court with voting down to shield me. That bi-partisan board was appointed, my books have been open to them since sum of money, I am able and willing to pay it, but if they do so find it is no fault of mine.

I would further say to the voters of Christian county that while I was sheriff of Christian county, I never failed to pay any warrant that was presented to me when the county had any funds in my hands for that purpose, but on the other hand paid large sums out of my own pocket to accommodate the public. Before I was elected sheriff, county warrants were discounted everywhere, and I promised the people that if elected sheriff, I would do everything in my power to see that they were paid promptly in cash without discount. No warrant was ever discounted by the people while I was sheriff. Before I was elected sheriff, those warrants were discounted as much as 25 per cent in many cases. And I am proud of the fact that I paid every obligation against the county when it should have been paid; that I was always ready and able to settle and pay the county any balance in my hands, and that I paid the county every cent that I owed it as soon as the county was ready to receive it, and that I have a full and complete quietus. I can further state that I am the only sheriff of Christian county in more than ten years who can say as much.

I will further say that some of my enemies have tried to slander me by pointing to the fact that I am a member of the Tobacco Association and for that reason they try to make some overly suspicious, but honest people, believe that I am not in favor of law and order but that I am in favor of night riding. No refutation of such a charge is necessary with those who know me and who know the record of myself and deputies in office. There is not one act in record either of omission or commission upon which to base even a suspicion of sympathy with lawlessness, neither is there in my conduct out of office anything to base such a slander upon.

Yet I am informed that some of my political enemies are secretly making the charge that I was actually in the raid upon the city of Hopkinsville, and as they will not make this charge to my face, and as I may not be able to see all the voters of the county before the election, I wish to state that that charge is absolutely and entirely false and malicious. I will state further that on that fateful night, at the suggestion of Mr. L. C. Cravens, who was one of my deputies, I left Hopkinsville late in the evening to take possession of some property down near the old rock bridge about twenty miles from Hopkinsville, and decided to go as far as my store at Fruit Hill that I might be able to get back to Hopkinsville on Saturday. The property referred to was to be sold under a mortgage in favor of Mr. B. F. Johnson, now a resident of Hopkinsville. I reached Fruit Hill about 9 or 10 o'clock that night and spent the rest of the night with Mr. R. L. Wells, who was my partner in business at that place. I left there early the next morning and did not hear of the raid on Hopkinsville until I reached Mr. Joe Dulin's, about two miles north of Fruit Hill. He told me of the raid and I telephoned to Hopkinsville and asked about the raid over the Home telephone. I immediately turned back and came directly to Hopkinsville, where I believed my duty called me. I reached there about 9 o'clock that morning and did everything in my power and in the power of my deputies for the security of life and property and a greater feeling of safety among the people of Hopkinsville, and in all the troublesome times that we have passed through, I have done everything that could be done through myself, my deputies and with the help of the willing people of this county for the enforcement of the law. I have at all times, and do now stand unqualifiedly in favor of law and order, and again elected to the office of sheriff by the voters of Christian county, I shall do everything in my power for the maintenance of law and order and for the security of life and property among the people of the county.

I sincerely hope the good people will give me back the office to which I was elected three years ago.

MACARONI IN ITALY.

To the Working People This Food Is a Luxury.

Every one pictures the Italian as eating macaroni. What if I tell you that the Italian, taking them as a people, do not eat macaroni, and yet this is virtually true. Macaroni in Italy costs 4 to 8 cents a pound, and it is too costly for common use. It is as accurate to say that the Italian lives on macaroni as that the American lives on turkey. Macaroni to the working Italian is a luxury. You often see young fellows on a holiday indulging in a dish in a restaurant or before a street food stand about as Americans would eat ice cream. A customary workman's dinner is a hunk of bread broken apart and "battered" with a few traces of tomato sauce. As for meat it is the greatest rarity, and the only drink that can afford to be water. They have the advantage of being cheap and filling. The Italians at home are not only temperate, but abstemious. Wine and beer and even tea, coffee and chocolate are forbidden all on account of the expense. In fact we saw no one under the influence of liquor. So also there is practically no smoking. The government has a monopoly on the tobacco business, buys its supplies in quantities direct in America and elsewhere and charges three prices for everything. The few tobacco shops keep a piece of smoldering tow tied at the doorstep, so that patrons and passers may light their cigars by it—Los Angeles Times.

WOMAN'S WIT UNCERTAIN.

As When This Wife Failed to Appreciate Hubby's Pleasantry.

"Don't always rely upon the ready wit of a woman," said the man who is sometimes pleased to consider himself an oracle. "That ready wit business is sometimes prone to get away off. For example, my wife and children had been staying in the country for several weeks, and I was regular with my letters, as every loving husband should be. Finally on the day before my wife was to start for home I concluded my letter to her with these words:

"This will be the last letter I will write to you for a long, long time." "When I got down to my office the next morning I found a telegram from my wife waiting for me. 'What on earth do you mean?' read the dispatch. 'Later a registered letter came from her. She had blotted almost every line with tears. What it was all about I could not imagine. 'Then my telephone bell rang, and when I answered I heard my wife's voice speaking from the long distance phone. 'Oh, John,' said she, 'is that really you? I thought you had committed suicide!'—Washington Post.

Remedy For Choking.

"Hailing the left arm as high as you can will relieve choking much more rapidly than the act of thumping one's back," said a physician, "and it is well that every one should know it. For often a person gets choked while eating where there is no one near to thump him. Very frequently at meals and when they are at play children get choked while eating, and the customary manner of relieving them is to slap them sharply on the back. The effect of this is to set the obstruction free. The same thing can be brought about by raising the left arm of the child as high as possible, and the relief comes much more quickly. In happenings of this kind there should be no delay. The mother or the older persons or parents get excited the effect is bad. The best thing is to tell the child to raise its left arm, and immediately the difficulty passes away."

The Popping Stone.

"The popping stone made the spot where Sir Walter Scott asked Miss Carpenter to marry him. It is situated in the beautiful valley of the Irthing, at Glisland, an island watering place near Carlisle. The popping stone is visited by many thousands during the summer months, and it is said many a laggard lover has had his courage screwed up to popping point at this romantic spot. In the immediate neighborhood may also be seen "Mumps Ha," which Scott immortalized in "Guy Raffles," and a little farther off the Roman wall and Lanercost priory prove attractions to visitors to Glisland—London Chronicle.

Hardships of the Very Poor.

Little Marion, having few real playmates, has supplied herself with several imaginary ones, with whom she has many surprising experiences. Her mother recently overheard her playing with her large family of dolls and entertaining a visionary caller. "Yes, Mrs. Smith," she said, heaving a deep sigh, "we are poor, terribly poor. We are so poor that I have to spank my babies to keep them warm."—Woman's Home Companion.

Costs Sometimes.

"There's no use talking about it—a throat disease is an expensive thing to have." "That depends. Mine never cost me anything." "What's your trouble?" "Kleptomania."—Cleveland Leader.

Do You Feel Chilly, Then Feverish and Ache all Over?

Feel Warmth, Blue and Tired? Have You a Fresh Cold, With Frequent Hacking Cough? Sensation of Soreness in the Chest or Back?

Don't let your case run into bronchitis, or some other obstinate and dangerous malady. The very best medicine to take in such a case is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Made without alcohol or dangerous drugs, it contains that rare combination of active medicinal roots that will allow a cold from its onset, as it were, restore the circulation, assist the appetite and digestion, and consequently restore tone to the entire system. That is the reason people look happy once more after taking it—they feel like living because their liver is active, the blood in their arteries is full of that life-giving quality—rich, red blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves.

Nervousness and neuritis are only the indication that the nerves are not fed on invigorating blood. The "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce is nature's own restorer. It tones up the organism and invigorates its functions, furnishing to the body one of its necessary constituent principles of which it is in need. This preparation is of pleasant taste, agrees perfectly with rebellious and sensitive stomachs, and is extremely effective in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system. It cures troubles of the stomach and at the same time the blood-vessels are given such a tonic up as to throw off a cold. One very good reason why it restores the health of run-down, pale and emaciated people is because it first throws out the poison through the liver and kidneys. It then begins its reconstructive work in building up flesh and making good, rich, red blood.

I have been a sufferer from indigestion for some thirty years, at times writing Mr. S. W. Muller, of Christville, Va., and have used medicine from several of our best physicians, which gave me only a little temporary relief. I say I could not be cured. Last winter I was stricken with the worst spell that I ever had, and I suffered such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I could neither work nor sleep, and my weight went down from one hundred and twenty-five pounds to one hundred and twenty in about two months' time. I then concluded that I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By the time the first bottle was gone I felt some relief from my severe suffering so continued until I had used four bottles of Golden Medical Discovery. I am truly thankful for the great benefit which I have received from your medicine, and can cordially recommend it to others.

It Stands Alone not only in respect to its ingredients but also as a medicine for stomach, and as a food.

It Stands Alone as the best and most perfectly harmless ingredients, with no alcohol.

It Stands Alone as the best and most perfectly harmless ingredients, with no alcohol. It is the makers of which take their patients fully into their confidence and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made of such quality that it has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

It Stands Alone as a cure for many cases and its ingredients are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Bloodroot, Mandarin root, and chemically pure glycerine.

Remember, these are the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Little Live and Letta first put up by Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, and although much imitated, have never been equaled. Made of concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American plants and roots, this discovery is a vegetable and ether working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

The Campaign Is On!

Who Will be President?

To form your opinions and keep in touch with the progress of the campaign, you will need first-class newspapers. We have made a special arrangement whereby you can get the

Daily Courier Journal $1.25

Daily Louisville Times $1.25

Weekly Courier-Journal .35

From Now Until Dec. 1, '08

This gives you a live metropolitan paper through the campaign and election. Or you can have the

Hopkinsville Kentuckian

for Twelve Months and either of the above dailies until December 1st for only

$3.00

This special campaign offer is in effect only during June, July and August, and no subscriptions will be received at the reduced rate after Aug. 31 under any circumstances.

SEND YOUR SUBSCRIPTION ORDERS TO THIS PAPER—NOT TO THE COURIER-JOURNAL OR TIMES.

IN THE COMING ELECTION YEAR

with its intense interest in the trusts, the tariff, the railroads, politics generally and political personages, the Review of Reviews will be doubly valuable to you.
